1. Since the recent transfer of German police units from Wittenberge (E37) to Glöwen (Y98), the latter town has had two police commanders. One of them is Kommandeur Larisch from Wittenberge, who spent some years in the USSR and speaks perfect Russian. He operates parallel to, but does not get on with, Kommandeur Thiele.
2. Ranking both these men is Inspekteur Telch, chief of the police school. A recent arrival is Kommissar Dechow, former newspaper salesman from Wittenberge.
3. New building projects for the Glöwen school include a weapons storage chamber, an obstacle course, and the alteration of a settlement into officers' quarters.
4. The cost estimate [] indicates that the Landespolizeischule is to be transferred to Forst.

Cost estimate for Glöwen
Top priority building designation for Glöwen
Volkspolizei summons sent to former officer
